In the reference 2nd read above, Sri V.Suresh Mohan, former Extension Officer (PR&RD) and I/c MPDO, MP, Ghattu, Mahabubnagar District has preferred an appeal stating that he was kept incharge MPDO in Gattu Mandal from 10.4.1997 to 01.07.1997 i.e., only 2 months 20 days in an unavoidable circumstances. One, Sri Abdul Khaleel, Ex. Junior Assistant, was looking after accounts section in the office and committed misappropriation since the formation of the Mandal Parishad i.e., 1987. This misappropriation was noticed during his two months incharge period only. The First Class Judicial Magistrate Court, Gadwal has acquitted all the MPDOs while Sri Abdul Khaleel, Ex. Junior Assistant, has given one year imprisonment on 6.10.2006. Sri Abdul Khaleel was already removed from service also. The recovery orders for entire amount have been issued against him under R.R. Act long back. The Inquiry Officer appointed by the Commissioner, Panchayat Raj & Rural Employment, Hyderabad, conducted inquiry into the charges framed against him. Out of the (4) charges, 1, 2 and 3 speaks of “connivance” with Sri Abdul Khaleel, Ex. Junior Assistant in drawing the money. Charge No.4 pertains to defrauding and misappropriation of funds. Charge No.4 was not held proved. When the report of inquiry officer is accepted by the Government and the observation made by the Government that it is suffice of a punishment of stoppage of one annual grade increment without cumulative effect is imposed on him for his “slackness” is not based on any record, as no charge of “slackness” as framed against him.
